the Teacher Certification Program and information about the admission process are available on the College of Education Web site at <http://education.msu.edu/academics/undergraduate/apply-teacher-prep.asp>.

Students who are enrolled in undergraduate degree programs at Michigan State University generally apply for entry into the program during the first semester of their sophomore year.

To be eligible for consideration for admission to the Teacher Certification Program, the student must have:

1. Enrolled in, or have applied for admission to, a disciplinary major that is available for teacher certification.
2. Completed at least 28 credits with a cumulative grade-point average of 2.75 or higher.
3. Completed any required remedial-developmental-preparatory courses.
4. Passed all portions of the Michigan Test for Teacher Certification (MTTC) Basic Skills Test.
5. Submitted a completed application to the Office of Student Affairs, College of Education. Applications are accepted once each year during the fall semester. Students

	who will have completed 56 or more credits by the end of the following summer session may apply for admission to the Teacher Certification Program. To be eligible for consideration for admission to the Teacher Certification Program with a major in special education, the student must also have completed one or two supervised pre-admission experiences totaling at least 42 hours in the area of learning disabilities. Prospective special education students are strongly encouraged to talk with special education faculty about the potential value of sites for securing the required experience. Prospective applicants to the special education program must submit a form verifying completion of the experience with the completed application. Although applicants to the special education major will not be ranked by their performance in the experience, only students who have completed the required experience will be considered for admission.
