

TOP 10

WAYS TO CELEBRATE

1 Display and distribute the activity calendar

to staff and families. <https://miaeyc.org/advocacy/week-of-the-young-child/>

2 Visit the NAEYC website

for more information and ideas.

<https://www.naeyc.org/events/woyc/overview>

3 Display photos of your children in action

in their learning environment and label them with children's descriptions.

4 Take the next step in your advocacy journey

with support from Michigan AEYC.

<https://miaeyc.org/advocacy/>

5 Post Michigan AEYC's Developmentally Appropriate Practice Statement of Support

for staff and families. <https://bit.ly/4cw euBb>

6 Hold an open house

for community members and local leaders to visit and observe how children learn through play.

7 Celebrate the diversity of your children, their families, and your community through daily activities.

<https://bit.ly/3vqJEJD>

8 Invite your legislators to come for a tour of the learning environment

and visit the children who would benefit from their support of early childhood initiatives.

<https://bit.ly/4a84WuL>

9 Use #WOYC2025 on social media.

10 Take children on a nature walk

to find and explore aspects of nature and the natural world. Share their discoveries with families through photos or children's artistic representations of the adventure.

