Betty Garlick Lifetime Achievement Award Honoring a Lifetime of Advocacy and Dedication

Crystal Sanford-Brown
Founder, Emerging Young Leadership, Inc.

Crystal Sanford-Brown is a truly deserving recipient of the Betty Garlick Award, embodying the same tireless commitment to early childhood education and advocacy that defined Betty Garlick's legacy. With more than 30 years of service, Crystal has dedicated her career to ensuring that all children—regardless of background—have access to high-quality early childhood programs.

Much like Betty Garlick, Crystal has not only worked directly with children and families but has also played a significant role in shaping policy and advocating for systemic change. Through her leadership in organizations such as NAEYC and Michigan AEYC, she has walked the halls of Congress and the Michigan State Capitol, championing diversity, equity, and inclusion in early childhood education. Her impact extends beyond her professional role, as she has continuously volunteered, mentored, and led professional development efforts to elevate the field.

Crystal's advocacy is deeply personal. Having experienced child abuse and neglect, child sexual molestation, domestic violence, and special education challenges, she has used her voice to uplift and empower others, ensuring that children and educators alike see their worth and potential. Her unwavering dedication is not just seen in her work but felt by all who know her—she is approachable, compassionate, and a relentless advocate for justice and quality education.

Even in the face of a devastating ALS diagnosis, Crystal continues to contribute to the field she loves. She remains an active speaker at conferences, inspiring others with her resilience and commitment, despite her rapidly progressing illness. Her impact is undeniable, and her legacy will endure in the lives of the children, families, and professionals she has influenced.

Michigan AEYC is honored to recognize Crystal Sanford-Brown, to celebrate a lifetime of service that has truly transformed the landscape of early childhood education in Michigan. She is a beacon of strength, advocacy, and compassion—making her a perfect and deeply worthy recipient of the Betty Garlick Award.

Congratulations to all award winners.
